I'm Sue Becker and as an expert international professional communicator, I hear these questions all the time. I've talked with more than 10,000 animals of species both domestic and wild, in dozens of countries world-wide, and I've started out hundreds of students learning animal communication in 19 years of teaching - people just like you who love their animal friends SO much and were fascinated by the possibility of communicating at a telepathic level - and wanted to try first steps toward doing exactly that.

If you've ever wondered what a conversation with your dog, cat, horse or other animal would be like, you'll love this Home Audio Course. It looks at our animal friends on many levels - physically, emotionally and spiritually - and shows you how:

- ✓ to see your animal friend in a new way
- ✓ to discover his or her purpose for being with you
- ✓ to use Calming Signals to help your animal feel safe
- ✓ to understand telepathy - the language of the Universe
- ✓ you can feel and become aware of your animal's energy
- ✓ you can learn to use energy to send a very clear message to your animal friends that they can understand
- ✓ you can experience what a communication feels like

This Home Study Course includes practice exercises that you can do at your leisure to learn to feel energy, interact with your animals, send clear messages and more.

You will receive Four Audios and each between 60 and 75 minutes in length.

and SO MUCH more...

“Thanks for the wonderful (course)...The realization that I came to this morning was worth every minute of your knowledge that you shared with us. I had mentioned how it seemed within 5-10 minutes of our coming home from work the ‘kids’ [cats] were going at it. It was bothering me what was causing this. Here’s the ‘power of words’ at work! I always say to my husband just as we’re on our way home, “I wonder what the kids are doing?” His reply, half joking with eyes rolling...”they’re probably fighting.” Sue, the feeling in my heart and stomach combined with the look on his face when we realized what we’ve been doing to them is almost unbearable. We sure do have a lot more learning to do, and we will... Thanks again.”

“BTW, since I began the calming exercises with my 3 dogs, there is a difference. They stick to me like glue but not in a clingy sense, but in a pack sense. And the barking...so much less of it. :-DDDD

- C.B., Ontario, Canada

No time right now? No problem! - The Audios are available for MP4 download so you can listen to them and practice the exercises as often as, and whenever, you wish.
They will be yours to keep.

“I listened to...last week’s session over the weekend, excellent information... I wanted to let you know the results from the week’s homework (with my cat Timothy)... A veil seemed to disappear that separated our two worlds. The surge of energy, love, heart to heart connection that went through our bodies was just unbelievable. I will never forget that feeling. Our relationship has changed drastically since.”

- P.F. Nova Scotia, Canada

“I ... thank you from my heart - I benefited from all of the exercises... I received a message that provided me with the clarity that I had been praying to God to receive. Out of the mouths of babes and cats - so the saying goes!

- I. D., Ontario, Canada
