

Energy Healing with Animals Teleclasses

If you'd like to help your animal friends heal energetically, join us for these phone/online classes. No need to leave your home!

An example of the benefits of energy healing would be, if your cat or dog is at the vet's or a boarding kennel and you believe he would be stressed, you can easily and quickly help him to ground over distance, which helps him feel calmed, safer and more relaxed. This helps his immune system be less stressed, reduces fear and helps him feel more relaxed overall (stress has numerous repercussions as we know).

If your animal friend has an injury, you can balance his or her energy which allow conditions for his physical healing to be kick-started and optimized.

Everyone can do this work, and no prior experience is necessary.

Classes begin Wednesday, October 23rd. We will meet on phone for an hour or so each Wednesday for 4 weeks and classes will be accompanied by a PowerPoint Presentation.

You DO have the power to make a difference to the well-being of your animal friends!

- We'll discuss the energy system of animals. You will learn how to use your hands and intention to balance and align their energy centers as well as balance their energy field overall and improve and optimize flow.
- You'll learn different energy healing techniques for both physical and emotional well-being.
- Learn ways to help an injured area release energy congestion and resume good energy flow, which promotes healing.
- You will discover how to brighten the energy field ... and more.
- Work with your own animal friends between classes for lots of practice.
- Studies have shown that energy healing helps broken bones, for example, heal in only 2/3 the time and I have seen this in my clients.

All classes are recorded for replay and/or download so no worries if you need to miss a class.

Call-in is easy and in most cases, long-distance charges are minimized or eliminated.

Email info@suebecker.net if you have questions.
